Rules on Annual Membership Fees

The Rules on Annual Membership Fees shall apply with effect from the 2020 calendar year according to a majority resolution adopted by the annual general meeting on March 16th, 2020

A distinction shall be made between membership fees in

- Category 1 for ordinary members with the right to vote and
- Category 2 for extraordinary members without the right to vote

1. The annual fee for ordinary members shall be €900.00. The following shall be regarded as ordinary members:

- Natural persons
- Legal persons

Remarks:

In the case of companies with a group character, group structure, individual membership may be required

- for every legally independent unit and,
- for divisions which independently conduct offset transactions (even if they are not legally independent).

2. The annual fee for extraordinary members shall be €500.00. The following shall be regarded as extraordinary members:

- Clubs, corporations under public law
- Educational institutions
- Non-commercial friends and supporters

The annual fee shall normally be paid for the full calendar year irrespective of the joining/leaving date.

The complete range of services of DKF shall be available to every member without any additional costs. This provision shall not include cost contributions for DKF events if these events are necessary and are announced in advance.
